FILM

Quartet

Dir: Dustin Hoffman, UK 2012, 98 mins, Cert: 12A

Starring: Maggie Smith, Tom Courtenay, Billy Connolly, Pauline Collins, Michael Gambon

At a home for retired musicians, the annual concert to celebrate Verdi's birthday is disrupted by Jean, an eternal diva and the former wife of one of the residents. A comedy-drama unfolds as old grudges threaten past glories and theatrical temperaments play havoc with the rehearsal schedule. Having four of the finest voices in English opera under the one roof is no guarantee that the show will go on!

Tuesday 01 April

Time: 8:00pm | Adm: €7

The Abbey Theatre On Tour
present

Quietly

By Owen McCafferty

'The best new play of the year'
– The Irish Times

Cast: Declan Conlon, Patrick O'Kane and Robert Zawadzki.

There's more to the truth than facts. Belfast is a place where things need to be said. Jimmy and Ian are meeting tonight for the first time. They share a violent past. They need to talk. Quietly is a powerful story about truth and forgiveness. It premiered at the Abbey Theatre in November 2012 and won a Fringe First Award at Edinburgh Festival Fringe and Best Actor for Patrick O'Kane in August 2013.

Friday 04 & Saturday 05 April

Time: 8:30pm | Adm: €18 & €16

Ramor Film Club present

Philomena

Dir: Stephen Frears, UK 2013, 98 mins, Cert: 12A

Starring: Judi Dench, Steve Coogan, Sophie Kennedy Clark

Based on the 2009 book by journalist Martin Sixsmith, the film focuses on Philomena's efforts to trace her son. Born to her out of wedlock in 1950s Ireland, he was given up for adoption. On losing his job with the Labour Party, Sixsmith hears of Philomena's story, meets her, and the two embark together on a journey that takes them from Roscrea to Washington, D.C. A moving film, with excellent performances, particularly from Dame Judi Dench.

Tuesday 08 April

Time: 8:00pm | Adm: €7

The Ramor Theatre
present

An Evening with Don Baker

The man affectionately known as The Don, Irish singer, songwriter, guitarist and harmonica player Don Baker will be bringing us his authentic Blues sound and marking 40 years in the business with a brand new album My Songs, My Friends. Over the years since then, Baker has built a solid reputation as a singer, guitarist, harmonica player and songwriter. Many of his own compositions offer disarmingly honest reflections on aspects of his own life and personality, and he has openly spoken of his deeply spiritual approach to life and people.

Thursday 10 April

Time: 8:30pm | Adm: €18

Youth Theatre Mullagh present

HEROIN LIES

By Wayne Denfy
Directed by Liam Daly

A sensitive, yet disturbing look at drugs and drugs dependency, in particular the pressures and influences at play on an ordinary teenager.

Ramor Theatre present

A Night in November

Written by Marie Jones
Performed by Padraic McIntyre
Directed by Paddy Farrelly

From the writer of
'Stones in His Pockets'

BACK BY DEMAND

When Ulster Protestant, Kenneth McCallister finds himself on the football terraces for a crucial Northern Ireland v Republic of Ireland World Cup qualifying match, little does he know that his hum-drum life is about to change forever. This production of Marie Jones' smash-hit one-man show, A Night in November features Padraic McIntyre playing the part of Kenneth, a protestant dole clerk on a search for his own identity. Jones' enduringly humorous and challenging play is both uncomfortable and compelling as it lays bare the issues of Protestant identity in 1990's Northern Ireland. It is the perfect night for a build up to the World Cup 2014. Marie Jones's passionate and often hilarious show has enjoyed productions all over the world including the West End and a successful six month run off-Broadway.

beatnaine festival
celebrating the best of the island

Written and directed by John Sheehy
Performed by Ciaran Bermingham and Cora Fenton

Fred and Alice first met in the home. It wasn't really a home but Fred always called it a home because that was where he lived, and if you are not living at home then where are you? It was love at first sight for Alice. Fred didn't talk to her again for years but then eventually Fred got used to her and it was love at first sight for him too. From their days in care, to independent living, Fred and Alice negotiate the perils and pitfalls of life and love.

Ramor Players
present

Stolen Child

Written by Yvonne Quinn & Bairbre Ni Chaoimh. Directed by Darragh Smith.
Cast: Maureen Kelleher, Fiona McGarvey, Cyril Keegan, Conor Sheridan.

The play tells the story of a young Dublin woman's journey to find her natural mother. She enlists the help of a private detective whose irreverent humour and hard-drinking lifestyle mask a deep understanding of human frailty. Parallel to her quest is the heartbreaking personal story of her mother's upbringing by nuns in a 1940s orphanage in Cavan and the harsh facts surrounding the enforced adoption of her newborn baby. It is a heart wrenching story but one that will resonate with the people of Cavan familiar with the story of the fire on the night of 23rd February, 1943 where 35 children and 1 adult died.

Preview: Thursday 22 in aid of Virginia Cancer Care

Take a bow!

The arts really matter to us in Ireland; they are a big part of people's lives, the country's single most popular pursuit. Our artists interpret our past, define who we are today, and imagine our future. We can all take pride in the enormous reputation our artists have earned around the world.

The arts play a vital role in our economy, and smart investment of taxpayers' money in the arts is repaid many times over. The dividends come in the form of a high value, creative economy driven by a flexible, educated, innovative work force, and in a cultural tourism industry worth €2.4 billion directly a year.

The Arts Council is the Irish Government agency for funding and developing the arts. Arts Council funding from the taxpayer, through the Department of Tourism, Culture and Sport, for 2010 is €69.15 million, that's less than €1 a week for every household.

So, at the end of your next great theatre performance, don't forget the role you played and take a bow yourself!
